1. Please describe the appearance and behaviour of the candidate:

(i.e., appropriately dressed, well on time, professional behaviour, sit in arranged well in advance, etc.)

2. Did the candidate have a good knowledge of the test?

3. Does the candidate have a good knowledge of riding theory and the principles of dressage? Is he/she capable of accurately assessing the horse based on the scale of training?

4. If given, were the marks for individual movements accurate? What were the differences (if any) with the marks of the mentor judge? If mistakes were made, how many times?

Missing a fundamental problem (i.e. error of course, lameness), failing to give any mark for a movement, or marking differences of 2 or more marks are considered a mistake. 1.5 mark differences need an explanation, 1 mark differences are allowed.

5. Are the candidate's remarks clear, appropriate, based on technical language and reflect the marks given?
The candidate must use remarks every time a mark of 5 or lower is given. Remarks for higher marks are appreciated.

6. Is the candidate using the whole range of marks from 0 to 10? What is the spread between high and low marks in the same test? An excessive use of 6.5 is not appreciated.

7. Does the candidate have a good knowledge of the dressage rules?

8. Other remarks:
